We work with all sectors of the red meat industry and aim to develop profitable and sustainable markets for our produce both in the UK and internationally.

We require a Communications Officer to fill a key role as part of an in-house team delivering an integrated communications strategy for both stakeholders and the general public. Reporting to the Communications Manager, the job requires a person with excellent writing and interpersonal skills.

The ideal candidate will have relevant journalistic, public relations, communications or other media experience and will be accustomed to working accurately to tight deadlines.

Further details can be found on our website.

To apply, please send your CV together with a covering letter to Julie Davies-Jones by email or post.

Closing date: 11 October 2013
